Shhh . . . I'm looking for silence.
It must be lurking around here
somewhere.

They say silence holds many secrets
for those who want to hear them.

Let's listen.

By day there are so many sounds around us.
Silence is hiding.

Maybe silence comes at night . . .

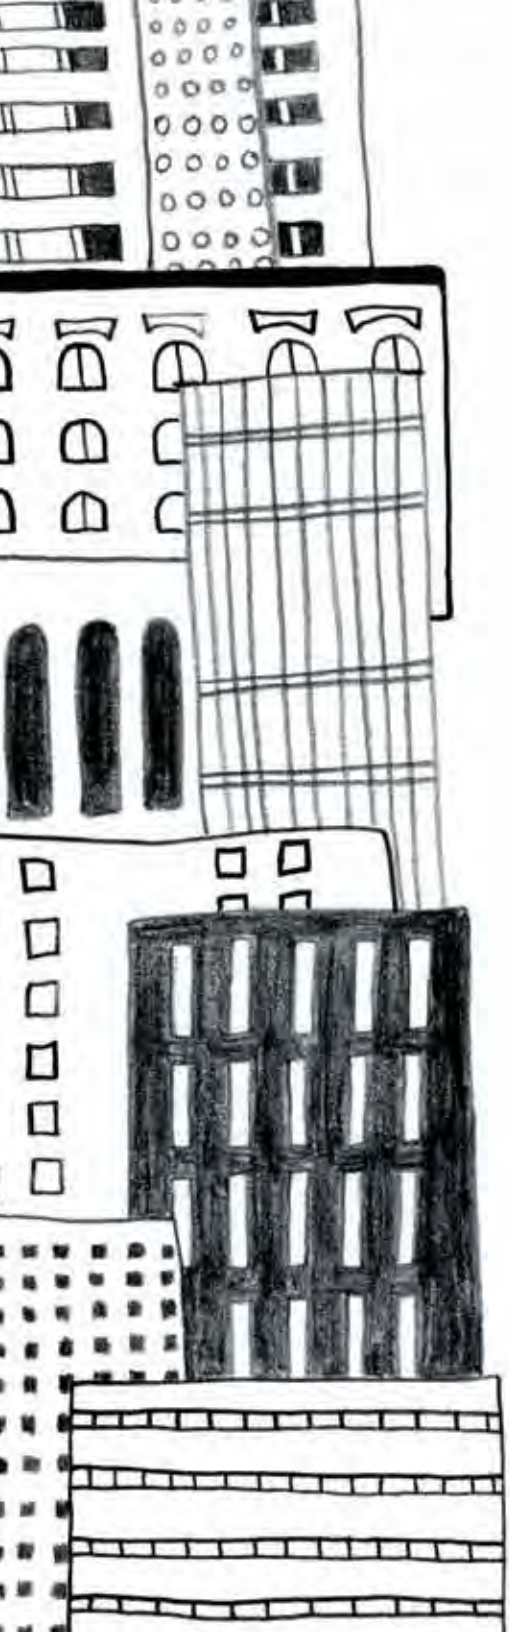

Everybody is sleeping.

Can you hear anything?

Even at night it's not easy to find silence!

Maybe silence lives in the woods?
It is quieter there than in the city for sure.

Silence, hello!

It turns out the woods are full of sounds, if you listen.
