

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

General Questions

1. How does the title of the book relate to the story? Are there any other title(s) that you think might also describe the story?
 - What does the jade bangle mean to Anhe?
 - What do the pearl earrings mean to Liz?
2. In the books, it's stated "We Vietnamese believe the spirits of our family, our ancestors, stay with us after they pass away. They hear our prayers. They watch out for us."
 - How do these beliefs appear in the story?
 - What are some of your family's beliefs?
3. The siblings speak both Vietnamese and English with their families. Do you speak a language other than English? If so, what language? Are there any other language(s) you want to learn?
4. Each of the Nguyen Kids is named after a character from a story book.
 - Who is Anhe named after?
 - Who is Liz named after?
 - Who is Jacob named after?
 - Have you read these books?
5. How do the Nguyen kids get along with each other? What are some examples in the book that show their sibling dynamics?
6. How is Anhe's relationship with Mom and Dad different from Liz's relationship with them?
7. Anhe does ballet and Liz does Taekwondo. How do these activities form part of the plot?
8. Can you relate to the characters in the book? Why or why not? Who is your favorite character? Why?
9. Describe in your own words what each of the books is about.
10. Is there anything you are still curious about after finishing the books?

The Secret of the Jade Bangle

1. When Anhe cooks Grandma Nôi's recipes, she feels closer to her.
What do you like to do with your family?
2. Mrs. Smith asks Anhe, "Where are you really from?"
 - How does this question impact the rest of the story?
 - What did you think when you read this part?
3. Anhe thinks: "I sit by myself and think about what it means to be Vietnamese. I've never really thought about this stuff before."
 - What do you think Anhe means by this?
4. Anhe asks herself: "Is something wrong with me? Who am I?"
 - Why do you think Anhe feels this way here? Have you ever felt like how Anhe does?
 - What does Anhe discover about her identity by the end of the book?
5. Jennifer says: "Sure. But she always points out how different you are." Then Anhe says: "I'm shocked. How does Jennifer notice when Sophie, my good friend, doesn't?"
 - Why do you think Jennifer and Sophie respond differently to the way Mrs. Smith treats Anhe?
 - How do the ways that Anhe's friends react to Mrs. Smith tell readers about friendship and standing up for what's right?
6. Anhe's parents have certain expectations of how Anhe performs at school and in ballet.
 - How do these expectations impact Anhe, and how do they shape the story?
7. Anhe brings the chả giò spring rolls to ballet class and stands up to Mrs. Smith. How does this scene make you feel?
8. What do you think Mom means when she tells Anhe, "Those comments were racist." What is your understanding of racism, what are some examples of racism in Mrs. Smith's actions?
9. How does Anhe and Jennifer's relationship change throughout the book? What do you think were the reasons for these changes?
10. How would you describe Anhe's character? Do you think she seems different at the end of the book, compared to how she was in the beginning?

The Power of the Pearl Earrings

1. Liz admires the Trung Warriors and this belief gives her strength. What are some stories of your family or culture that inspire you?
2. Liz and Rohan like to play role-playing games. What do you like to do with your friends?
3. When Michael says, “Taekwondo—isn’t that a boy thing?” how does this make Liz feel?
 - What was your reaction to reading this scene?
 - Why do you think Rohan starts hanging out with Michael more than Liz?
4. Anhe holds my hand. “Like I said, if you need help, Grandma Nôî will know.”
 - What do you think Anhe means here, and how does it help Liz?
5. Liz thinks: “The Baby and Dad are buddies. Miss Perfect and Mom are buddies. Mom and Dad just want me to stay out of the way.”
 - What does Liz mean by this? How does this impact Liz and how she acts in the book?
6. Why do you think Michael starts the “No Girls Allowed” club?
7. Liz tells her mom about what she notices with some of the boys at school: “Like they tell you things you already know. Or they pretend to know things. Like people pay more attention to them.”
 - Has something like this ever happened to you at school?
8. Auntie Hai says: “Us feminists believe women equal to men. Should have same rights and chances. Still need to fight.”
 - What do you think about these statements?
9. After Liz lets Michael answer the question about coding, she decides to do it herself.
 - Why do you think she does this?
 - How does this scene show how she’s changed from the beginning of the book?
10. How would you describe Liz’s personality? What kind of things does she do that surprises you?